Cutlery note: Disposable cutlery itself is generally treated as a non-packaging item under the PPWR indicative examples. Bags, wrappers, sleeves, retail packs and cartons around the cutlery still need to be assessed as packaging.

Traceability note: Product / SKU and batch, lot or production-date identification are useful for packaging traceability. Bill of Lading No., container No. and China customs declaration No. are logistics / customs references and are not standard Annex VIII declaration fields. A PO / Order No. may be included as an optional commercial reference.

Important: This template does not replace food-contact documentation, PFAS evidence, compostability certification, national EPR registration or market-specific legal review. Use only evidence applicable to the exact packaging type and final SKU.
